

Important Information for applicants of faculty positions

Considering requests of the applicants for various faculty positions regarding difficulty in submission of hard copy of the on-line applications with requisite documents, following instructions are for information to all concerned-

1. Last date for submission of desired documents is extended upto 15-11-2019, (Friday) on or before 4:00 pm. However, the University will not be responsible for any postal delay and documents received after extended last date of submission i.e. 15-11-20019 will not be entertained.
2. Applicants may now view and print their on-line application on <http://workhnbgu.samarth.edu.in> link for submission of hard copy of the same, however, applicants who have already submitted their documents to the University in response to the earlier notice/ e-mail regarding submission of hard copy of applications need not to submit again.
