

Department of Economics,
H.N.B. Garhwal University
Srinagar Garhwal, Uttarakhand

Notice

The process of document verification of all students (all three campuses) who are provisionally admitted in M.A-I Semester, Department of Economics was scheduled on 11th and 12th January, 2022.

Due to rapid surge in Covid cases and deteriorating conditions, the Department has decided to postpone the document verification process till further orders. Students are required to regularly check the University website for further information about verification process and classes (online/Offline mode). Till the time verification process is completed the admission of all the students will be considered as provisional.
