University: HNB Garhwal University, Srinagar Garhwal, Uttarakhand

Sl. No.	Question	Reply
(a)	Whether the government has prepared any draft to ensure the quality of higher educational institutions and to give them new heights;	The University does not have a separate policy to ensure quality of higher education. However it ensures the delivery of quality education through its academic and administrative set up. In fact quality assurance is a built in feature of the university.
(b)	If so the details thereof and the reason therefore along with its salient features and by when it is likely to be ready;	The University has an active Internal Quality Assurance Cell (IQAC), in pursuance of Action Plan of the National Assessment and Accreditation Council (NAAC), Bengaluru, for performance evaluation, assessment and accreditation and quality up-gradation of institutions of higher education. The prime task of the IQAC is to develop a system for conscious, consistent and catalytic improvement in the performance of institutions. The IQAC will make a significant and meaningful contribution in the post-accreditation phase of institutions. During the post-accreditation period, the IQAC will channelize the efforts and measures of an institution towards academic excellence.
(c)	The standard laid down by the government for this; and
(d)	The way through which students would be benefited by this?	It ensures heightened level of clarity and focus in institutional functioning towards quality enhancement. It would result in a betterment of teaching, learning and evaluation process. It Ensures internalization of the quality culture, thereby improving the overall quality of the students. It ensure enhancement and coordination among the various activities of the institution and institutionalize good practices, which in turn leads to betterment in the outcomes of the students' performance.
